

COMMUNICATE!

Levels B1, B2, (C1)

Michael Gradwell

This course is proposed by a highly experienced teacher of communication: an English teacher specialising in classes of communication and theatre, Michael Gradwell was also responsible for courses in “Communication” for engineering students in French at ESIEE.

In class, the instructor will use a wide variety of exercises and techniques to help students overcome their residual fear of speaking English in public. Much work will be organised in small groups

By the end of the course, students will speak more freely, with more confidence, and will be easier to understand.

If you still hesitate about speaking up or coming forward in English, then this course is for you.

Autonomy

Students will work together to create a handbook on communication techniques.

Evaluation

To be fixed at the first or second class along the following lines:

Presence and active participation 60%

Preparation and follow-up work at home 40%
